The National Right to Work Committee is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, single-purpose citizens' organization dedicated to combating compulsory unionism through an aggressive program designed to mobilize public opposition to compulsory unionism and, at the same time, enlist public support for Right to Work legislation. The Committee's mailing address is 8001 Braddock Road, Springfield, Virginia 22160. The Committee can be contacted toll-free at 1-800-325-7892. Its web address is <http://nrtwc.org/>.

The National Right To Work Committee is forced to spend precious resources on this activity even though the Committee has always made available to contributors -- directly, upon request and without bureaucratic middlemen -- the information the states require.

The Committee's administrative and mailing costs are increased, and a portion of your contribution is wasted on complying with excessive state, federal and local regulations. We are sorry this diversion of your hard-earned contribution occurs, but we must obey the laws of each state. Here are the paper-consuming, time-squandering results of five states' bureaucratic regulations.

The Committee encourages its members in the referred states below to contact their state legislators and the agencies mentioned to protest these onerous regulations (with which fraudulent charities virtually never comply) that burden responsible organizations such as the National Right to Work Committee®.
